Sewing Club.

Miss Flossie Gardner entertained the Sewing Club Monday afternoon at the regular meeting. The sewing hour was delightfully spent in work and conversation, followed by a delicious luncheon. Mrs. John Townes, Jr. of Houston and Mrs. Lovell Bay were out of town.

Week End House Party.

Judge and Mrs. B. H. Gardner, Mrs. Vance Duncan of Egypt, the Misses Gardner and Miss Helen Grant form a congenial house party at Elkhart this week. The latter ladies left this morning to join Judge and Mrs.
Gardner, who left Monday.

Farewell Party.

Mrs. John D. Grigsby entertained on Monday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. J. W. Sykes, who leaves Thursday for her new home at Corpus Christi, where Dr. Sykes has accepted the call of the Episcopal church. This beautiful occasion was fraught with much love, and the charming informality was pleasing to all. The parlors and dining room were thrown together, and decorated for the occasion, the parlors being in La France roses and the dining room in American Beauties. Ferns were prettily arranged here and there.
Each guest brought her sewing or fancy work, and the conversation of each drifted to the parting and friendship of the honoree. A beautiful musical program was rendered:

Instrumental duet, "Sunflower Dance"—Mesdames J. W. Sykes and L. Gooch.

Vocal solo, "I Love Thee Truly"— Mrs. Pinkney Hall of Crockett.

Piano solo, "Farewell," song without words—Mrs. L. Gooch.

Mrs. Gooch said "she thought that Mrs. Sykes would read in the melody the loving thoughts of her friends present and take them with her to her new home."

Piano solo, "Song of the Bathers" —Mrs. Gooch. This suggested to the honoree her home beside the sea.

Vocal duet, "Thou Art My Own"— Mesdames E. W. Link and J. D.
Grigsby.

Vocal solo, "Abraham"—Mrs. Link.
Every number was beautiful, and voiced good-bye with the fondest love.

Another hour was passed in conversation and luncheon.

Mrs. Grigsby was assisted by Mesdames F. Hufsmith and J. D. Smullen and Miss Lois Grigsby in entertaining.

Rees-Medlenka.

The wedding of Miss Fannie Rees and Fred Medlenka, which took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. Rees, on Wednesday night, was a beautiful one. The bride was most attractive in a white lace robe over white silk, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Cora Rees, was in white over pink and carried a huge bunch of pink carnations. The best man was Flora Medlenka. Father O.
Sullivan of Galveston performed the ceremony. The wedding march was played by the sister of the bride, Mrs.
Rader, and before the marriage Miss Fannie Culmore sang "Oh, Fair, Oh, Sweet and Holy!" After the wedding a reception was held, where only the family and intimate friends were present. Punch was served by Miss Letha Mundine and Miss Orile Medlenka, assisted by Master Vernon Schanhale. The only ornament worn by the bride was an old and very beautiful brooch which had been worn by her mother, grandmother and great-grandmother on their wedding day. After the reception the young couple went into their own home at 1215 Arlington street, the gift of the groom. Those who received with

Mrs. Rees were Mrs. L. Schanhals, Miss Annie Bohn and Miss L. Glendenin of Galveston and Mrs. Fred Medlenka.—From Sunday's Houston Post.

Miss Fannie Rees, with her mother, sister and brother, survived the Galveston flood, and made her home in Palestine for a while, where she made many warm friends, who are happy with her in her happiness.

Surprise Party.

A crowd of young people gathered Friday evening at the home of Miss Alice Johnson, complimentary to her guests, Misses Ada and Katie Storck of Palestine, Texas.—Sunday's Houston Post.

Will Leave Thursday Night.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Sykes and Mrs.
Sykes and daughter, Miss Eleanor, will leave tomorrow night for their new home at Corpus Christi. During his two years' pastorate of St. Philip's church they have endeared themselves not only to the membership of that church but to all who have had the pleasure of knowing them, and it is regretted by all that they leave.
May their pastures be green, with ever-flowing water.

Ladies' Bazaar.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will hold a social meeting and bazaar with Mrs. T. W. Smith on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members of the church and friends are invited to be present.

Complimentary Rook.

Mesdames W. G. Jameson, L. Dou-thit and Lev. Frederick entertained with ten tables of Rook yesterday afternoon, honoring Mesdames M. A.
Davey of Houston and Lovell Bay of St. Louis. The Jameson home was pretty and fragrant in fall roses, pink and white ones being used in the parlors, while red roses decorated the dining room. Ferns added grace to the decorations. The hostesses, with their honorees and Miss Kathleen Douthit and Kathleen Davey passed the pretty score cards, and soon all were interested in Rook, at the close of which covers were laid and an elegant two-course luncheon served.
Mrs. Freddie Kolstad Kuhne of New York was an out-of-town guest.

Rook Continued.

This afternoon Rook was continued at the Jameson home, Mesdames Jameson, Douthit and Frederick entertaining other friends in honor of Mesdames Davey and Bay. The same pretty flowers were used as on yesterday, and this was another happy afternoon.
